June 11th,1924.

Dear Mrs. Wilkinson;

Pardon my delay in thanking you for your letter and remittance. I have been very much snowed under.

I trust the books will continue to give you pleasure; and that the Song Books, when you undertake them, will please you as they are pleasing thousands of others.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. W. J. Wilkinson,
Rosewell, N.M.